

Vocational rehabilitation Work Trial Programme

This service enables the voluntary testing of work ability, aptitude and suitability of a genuine role within a live, working environment. Placements are sourced speculatively and through Remploy contacts.

Service summary and expected outcomes

- Assesses suitability and ability in a live, working environment or a new occupational area
- Enables a client to demonstrate skills to a current or potential employer
- Increases the client's confidence and enhances their CV
- Helps to identify further development needs
- Minimal risk, as the client's benefits are unaffected
- Clients actively participate in the trial, with regular monitoring and support
- Provision of a skills gap analysis and action plan
- A final summary report is provided with detailed recommendations

Cost: £600
